

Late Miss. A. KANDIAH (Tamil & Hinduism Teacher)

She was born in Mandaitivu, one of the seven Islands in the south west of Jaffna peninsula.

One among the devoted teachers of Velanai Central College with intrinsic qualities was the late Miss. Ambika Kandiah with a deep knowledge in Tamil Language, Literature and Hinduism. She created a lively interest in all the literary activities in the classes. An efficient, strict but kind teacher, she was more interested in training her pupils in the Hindu tradition. Her leadership to the girl students was of a high order much admired by all.

She was fully occupied in all the religious functions in the school serving as a model to all. She was also interested in Music and trained her pupils, both boys and girls in singing the Hindu hymns.

In short, everyone looked upon her as one living and working with motherly interest, so much so when she retired the school had lost the services of an ideal teacher. She did not live long after her retirement and is remembered by all. May her soul rest in peace! Om, Shanthi!
